

IN OGDEN'S SOCIETY CIRCLES

SILVER SOCIAL WILL BE PLEASING EVENT OF TUESDAY

MRS. J. C. NYE.

MRS. NYE TO ENTERTAIN.
An event that is being looked forward to with keenest interest and anticipated pleasure is the Silver social, to be given on next Tuesday, March 20, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Jennie L. Nye, 2546 Adams avenue. The entertainment is being given by the state department, Ladies of the G. A. R., of which organization Mrs. Nye is the very popular president.

A musical and literary program is being planned and the serving of refreshments will furnish a part of the afternoon's entertainment. Many guests are expected from Salt Lake City for the event. Members of Lincoln circle No. 2, members of Dix-Logan post of the G. A. R. and their wives are most cordially invited to be present. Mrs. Nye will be assisted in entertaining by the four department officers residing in Ogden—Mrs. B. F. Thomas, Mrs. C. W. Hadley, Mrs. Kate Hodge, and Mrs. Cora Stevens.

ENTERTAINS AT PARTY.
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas of West Second street entertained at a party on Wednesday evening in honor of Billie Wilson, who leaves in the near future to make his home in Canada. The evening was spent in dancing, card playing and music, singing being furnished by Mrs. Myrtle Orton, Mrs. Minnie Thomas, Billie Wilson and Ory Foy.

At a late hour a very dainty and delicious Dutch lunch was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Billie Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. A. Orton, Mrs. Ida Thomas, Mrs. Chloe Nethercott, Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ory Foy, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas, Junior Thomas and Ray Wilson.

RED CROSS TEA.
Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Henry Barker, Jr., and Mrs. B. S. Stone entertained about thirty guests at a Red Cross tea. Mrs. Barker's beautiful home, 537 Thirteenth street, where the tea was given, was very artistically decorated in the national colors, red, white and blue. The red and white color scheme was perfectly carried out in the refreshments.

Mrs. Bichel gave a splendid talk on Red Cross work and a number of the ladies joined the organization. The feature of the afternoon was the reading of Alfred Noyes' war drama, "Rada," by Mrs. Dan Sullivan, wife of Prof. Sullivan of the High school. All were delighted with her beautiful, clear voice and wonderful interpretation. Excellent patriotic recitations were also given by Misses Grace and Edith Stone. Those present were: Mesdames O. A. Byrne, Jas. L. Barker, A. Clifford, D. A. Creamer, C. C. De Wees, J. Greenwell, J. R. Jeppson, J. A. Jones, G. A. Lashus, D. O. Minnoch, F. Newman, A. E. Pratt, I. L. Richards, A. W. Putman, M. L. Robb, D. Sullivan, J. Westmeier, W. McMartin, A. L. Stone, and Misses Ina Craven, G. Fitzgerald, J. Marsh, E. Nebeker, A. Powell, F. Wall, B. Williams, L. Swanson and E. Brown.

THE ROYAL HIGHLANDERS
Ogden Castle No. 525 held a very interesting meeting on March 13, with excellent attendance. Three applications for membership were read and referred to committees, and four refugees crossed the drawbridge and received protection within the castle walls, this making a total of twenty-five new members received by initiation during the past two months. The drill team in their Scotch suits made a very pretty and impressive appearance.

ther," occupying about ten minutes, and this will be one of the numbers she will present Sunday night. Another of about equal length is "The Beautiful Williamette," by Samuel E. Simpson, and to these she will add one or more of briefer content. Mistress Norris will also tell the story of her life, which is unusually interesting. Her mother and dramatic art coach is Mrs. Gertrude C. Norris, now with the Ogden Conservatory of Music.

In connection with the readings, a special musical program will be given.

At 5 o'clock Mrs. Lloyd assisted by Mrs. Snyder served a perfectly prepared tray luncheon to the following ladies:

Mrs. Chas. P. Carlson, Mrs. Frank W. Joosten, Mrs. J. H. Worthington, Mrs. Joe Neimoyer, Mrs. Billy Ferres, Mrs. Herbert H. Snyder, Miss Edna Hadfield, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. T. A. Jost, Mrs. G. D. Jost, Mrs. Joe Flygare, Mrs. Mary Farley, Mrs. C. G. Crawford, Mrs. A. H. De Witt, Mrs. Guy Richison, Mrs. Lawrence Stratford and Mrs. Lloyd. The ladies declared Mrs. Lloyd a charming hostess.

ST. JOSEPH'S SEWING SOCIETY.
Mrs. J. Kelleher entertains the St. Joseph's Sewing Society next Thursday at the church parlors.

500 CLUB
The 1916 Five Hundred club will meet with Mrs. Lena Preece at her home on Canyon Road on March 22.

POINSETTA CLUB.
One of the prettiest events of the past week was the meeting of the Poinsetta club at the apartments of Mrs. Guy Richison, in the Stillwell, on Grant avenue and Twenty-eighth street, last Thursday afternoon. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion and the hostess served a nicely prepared luncheon following the social hour.

HOME INDUSTRY CLUB.
The Home Industry club ladies were the guests of Mrs. S. M. Kershaw at her home, 2943 Adams avenue, last Tuesday afternoon. A business session was followed by a luncheon served by the hostess.

DANCING PARTY.
Little Miss Dolly Louise DeVine is entertaining a large number of her friends at a dancing party at the Maids' and Matrons' club this afternoon.

THEATRE PARTY.
A happy theatre party which enjoyed the delightful performance at the Alhambra this afternoon, occupying two balcony boxes, consisted of the following:

Mrs. Charles H. Wilson and son, and mother, Mrs. Mary E. Drake, Mrs. James E. Ellingson and little son and daughter, Mrs. David L. Stine and son, and Mrs. A. D. Noblitt and son, and Milford Piggett.

LOGAN SOCIETY

George Fister, Jr., and small son, and Miss Reta Fister will leave Wednesday for Chicago, where they will join Mr. Fister, who is studying there, and will remain about three months.

Mrs. George Hill spent the week in Salt Lake, where she went to meet relatives from New York who were en route to Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Frank Rolapp of Ogden has returned from a month's trip to the coast and is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. A. D. Thatcher.

Dr. L. W. Snow of Salt Lake spent the first part of the week here on business.

Dr. George Thomas, who has been the director of the School of Commerce at the Agricultural college for several years, will leave the institution in the near future to go to Berkeley, Cal., where he has been made a director and treasurer of the Federal Farm Loan bank.

The regular monthly Commercial Boosters' club dinner was given Monday evening at the Hotel Logan. Captain Santschi acted as toastmaster for the evening. Mr. C. F. Adams of Gardner & Adams, Salt Lake, gave an excellent talk on "Modern Business Methods."

Evidently March has forgotten what is expected of her and has made no effort as yet to don her spring attire; hence social affairs are few, society evidently waiting for the snows to pass and the spring with its gay blossoms and greens to return.

The Commercial Boosters' vaudeville show given on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Lyric theater, surpassed all previous entertainments given by the club and was greeted by large and enthusiastic audiences.

The Auction Bridge club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy Thatcher.

Mrs. James Hansen entertained at a prettily arranged St. Patrick party Wednesday afternoon at her home. The decorations were in white sweet peas and shamrocks. A prettily arranged luncheon was served from small tables decorated in the blossoms and all the details were carried out in the St. Patrick idea. Covers were laid for twenty-four guests. Cards and music were the features of the afternoon.

Miss Florence Carlisle and Miss Lydia Hansen entertained the Wobacy society at an enjoyable evening Monday at the home of Mrs. Dora Wright. Galsworthy's drama, "A Little Dream," was very interestingly read by Miss Mary Carlisle. Refreshments were served. The guests of the evening were Miss Ada Hansen, Miss Wright and Miss Vera Cash. About thirty were present.

Miss Lulu Olsen entertained at a dancing party on Thursday evening at Murdock's. Eighteen guests were present.

Miss Clarice Hansen entertained at dinner on Sunday evening at her home. The table decorations were attractive.

ly arranged, spring flowers being used as the table centerpiece and as favors at each place. Covers were laid for the following guests: The Misses Clarice Hansen, Velene Quinner, Ada Frederick, Iris Clark, Marlene Cotter, Irene Wright, and Messrs. Moses Christensen, George Preston, Harold Alvord, L. C. Nuha, Wendle Barber and John Schless.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the Clio club dinner given Friday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Weston Vernon. The rooms were attractively decorated throughout the house in spring blossoms and palms. In the dining room daffodils and maiden-hair ferns were used. The guests were seated at one long table artistically arranged. A large crystal chandelier of the blossoms formed the centerpiece, with streamers of yellow tulle and smilax extending from it to the corners of the table. Mrs. Vernon acted as toastmistress and each club member responded to toasts, followed by Mr. Moses Thatcher, Jr., who responded to the toast, "The Future of the Clio." Covers were laid for forty.

Following the dinner a clever little one act play, "Overtones," was given by Miss Elizabeth Underwood, Mrs. Glen Hudson, Miss Marie Barber and Miss Allie Cox. Dancing and cards were other enjoyable features of the evening. The committee in charge of the arrangements were: Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. George Torgeson, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. John O. Peterson and the Misses Allie Cox and Underwood.

One of the most attractive dancing parties of the season was the Sigma Theta Phi annual ball given Saturday evening at the Smoot gymnasium. The decorations were very artistic, green and white, the St. Patrick idea, being carried out in all the decorations, the programs and refreshments. Irish music was played throughout the evening by an orchestra elevated on a platform arranged in the center of the gym. The committee in charge of the affair were the Misses Lucille Rogers, Orietta Smith, Margrette Cannon and Mildred Crabb.

U. A. C. Woman's club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ariel F. Cardon, on Center street. A very instructive and interesting lecture on "The Social Life of the Insect" was given by Prof. E. G. Titts. Tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Clair Cardon.

The Clio club met at the studio of Miss Elizabeth Underwood on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. C. W. Porter as hostess. An interesting reading of a Russian drama, "War," was given by Miss Marie Barber. A discussion by the club members followed. Refreshments were served.

Miss Ella Hatch entertained twelve of her most intimate girl friends on Friday afternoon at a charmingly appointed announcement luncheon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hatch. The luncheon table was artistically arranged in a yellow color scheme. A crystal basket of daffodils and maiden-hair ferns was the centerpiece, with yellow tulle streamers and bows extending from it to the corners of the table. All the details of the luncheon were carried out in the same color scheme. During the luncheon the engagement of Miss Hatch to Mr. Wesley Anderson was announced to guests present. Covers were laid for Mrs. M. S. Eccles, Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. Leslie Naisbitt, Mrs. George Caine, Mrs. Earl Robinson, Miss Margaret Nibley, Miss Jessie Eccles, Miss Edna Nibley, Miss Louisa Barber, Miss Emma Eccles, Miss Hazel Anderson, Miss Marie Barber, Miss Allie Clayton and Miss Mae Edwards. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Hatch, and sister, Mrs. Asa Bullen.

The first ward mutuals will present two one-act plays Tuesday evening at the ward hall. "The Obstinate Family" will be given by the following members: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bailey, Miss Frances Barber, Miss Marion Smith, Clayton Preston and Scott Budge. The cast for the second play, "The College Tramp," is composed of Mrs. Guy Thatcher, Miss Elva Redford, Miss Libby Parks, T. D. Nebeker and Earl Van Wagner. Mrs. Leslie Naisbitt has charge of both dramas.

MURRAY-WADMAN
Miss Thelma Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Murray, became the bride of Mr. James Wadman the evening of March 14 and the happy couple are now enjoying a honeymoon trip to Idaho. The bride is a well-known and respected young lady of Ogden and the groom is an employee of the Southern Pacific company. Mr. and Mrs. Wadman will make their home in this city on their return.

BIRTHDAY EVENT
A pretty birthday party was tendered little Miss Rhea Greenwell last Tuesday, March 13, in honor of the charming little miss' twelfth birthday. The affair was held at the home of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Greenwell, 2350 Kingsford avenue, and music and games were enjoyed, after which a dainty birthday luncheon was served.

MRS. KATE SOBEL,
Who Entertained at a Pretty Red Cross Tea One Day Last Week.

Mrs. Greenwell being assisted in preparing and serving by Mrs. H. J. Cook and Mrs. W. C. Osborne. Those present were: Alta Hancock, Paylla Hawkes, Kathryn Huss, Carmen Kirchoff, Rhea Greenwell, Alva Greenwell, Ruth Wright, Helen Stevens, Rose Bowen, Miriam Maycock, Virginia Scowcroft, Margaret Buchmiller, Nellie Wilson, Lucile Pidecock, Dorothy Pidecock, Lucile Farley, Viola Farley, Alton Parker, Elwood Brown, George Pidecock, Elora Jacobs, Murelle Staker, Francis Scott and Burton Grace.

ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE
Mrs. Margaret West announces the marriage of her son, Frank Squire West, to Miss Dorothy Holtgren of Seattle, Wash. The wedding occurred on March 2 in Los Angeles, Cal., and the happy couple motored north on their honeymoon trip, but will return to Los Angeles to make their home. Mr. West is connected with the Stearns-Knight Motor Car company of Los Angeles and has also a large number of friends in Ogden who will be pleased to hear of his marriage.
